Dr. Daniel Kim, Appointed New Board Chair of Vision Care USA

We are delighted to announce that Dr. Daniel Kim, Managing Director of St. Mary’s Eye & Surgery Center was recently appointed as the new Board Chair of Vision Care USA.

Dr. Kim, who had previously served as the Board Co-Vice Chair, will be succeeding Dr. Donghae Kim, Founder of Vision Care, who had faithfully served as Chair of both the Korean and US Headquarter offices.

Over the years, Dr. Daniel Kim has led Vision Care Eye Camps in Peru, Morocco, Nigeria and Guatemala as well as our annual Local NY/NJ Eye Camps for medically underserved and uninsured Korean Americans.

A graduate of Cornell University and NYU School of Medicine, Dr. Kim is an ophthalmologist specializing in cornea, cataract and refractive surgery at St. Mary’s Eye and Surgery Center with offices in Palisades Park (NJ), Manhattan and Flushing, Queens. Dr. Kim also has extensive experience with community and professional service organizations, including the Korean American Medical Association (KAMA) where he served as board chair, Korean American Community Foundation (KACF) and

The Beautiful Foundation USA (now NY Nanum Foundation).

As chair, Dr. Daniel Kim will be leading a 13-member board, and working closely with the Executive Committee which also includes Dr. Lisa Park (Vice-Chair), Dr. John Park (Secretary) and Dr. James Kim (Treasurer).

Congratulations Dr. Daniel Kim and the new Executive Board!
